

The Tailleur Suit

is the most essential garment of woman's outer apparel—no other garment requires such lasting service, nor is suitable for so many occasions—Shopping, Calling, Church, Travel, Informal Afternoon Wear, etc.

Your friends may know your tastes by your evening gowns, your family for your little niceties of dress, but the world at large pronounces a woman "SMART" by the appearance she makes in her tailored suit.

For Dixie Chapter.

The Dixie Chapter of the U. D. C., will present under their auspices and by the Norene St. Clair Stock company, "The Sweetest Girl in Dixie," a play of the South written by a daughter of the South, Miss Freda Slemen, daughter of Congressman Slemen of Arkansas, who during the war and for years after, lived in Tennessee. The play is based on incidents in the family life of that family, and deals so truthfully, so vividly naturally of the conditions that prevailed in hundreds of Southern families during the days of Reconstruction. Mr. Pellock in the character of Col. Howard, and Miss St. Clair in the character of Aunt Calline, an old negro "mammy" were with the original New York production and played their parts for forty-nine months continuously. The quartette will render old Southern melodies, and the performance will be complete, and in every way worthy of the cause it is presented for. Members of the Dixie chapter are offering tickets for sale which will be redeemed at the box office, for reserved seats. The performance takes place Tuesday night, the Anderson theatre.

Mission Study Class.

The Mission Study class will meet Friday afternoon at four o'clock, the place to be announced later. The books are on sale at Fants Book store, and the members are asked to call and get them.
